Excellent KS1 Teacher (required for a mixed age class (Year 1 and 2) from September 2021 to work as a job share. Please note the maximum pay will be MS4 and NQTs are welcome to apply.

Situated in the beautiful village of Grantley, the school is at the centre of our rural community. This post offers an exciting opportunity for an enthusiastic teacher to come and join our team.

As part of the Grewelthorpe & Fountains Federation and more widely the Hart Teaching Alliance we can offer a strong commitment to supporting your further professional development.

Please visit our school websites to get a flavour of who we are, and visits to school are always encouraged. We are looking for someone with energy, creativity, high expectations and a passion for teaching. Our school is a welcoming, inclusive community which works hard to ensure that all children reach their potential.

Would you rise to the challenge of:

- Delivering excellent lessons to individual groups and classes based upon sound curriculum knowledge
- Identify and address gaps in children's learning
- Understand the impact of the learning environment upon children and staff
- Monitor children's progress, assess their achievement, record results and make accurate observations
- Have a 'can do' mentality with a desire to overcome any challenges that arise
- Be a team player with good communication and inter-personal skills
- Have good organisational and time management skills
- Embrace change and be willing to be flexible
- Most importantly, be committed to professional development and have high expectations of your own practice
- Be prepared to support the Christian ethos of our school.

For an informal chat with the headteacher prior to your application, or to make an appointment to visit the school please contact the school office. Applications should be returned to Joanne Mallinson, Office Manager by Wednesday 23rd June 2021

Please email where possible office@gfschools.co.uk

Enhanced Level DBS Disclosure is required for appointment to this post.
